Upcoming Events

Trivia Night

Friday April 20th - Our first Trivia Night of 2018. Come and join the fun and have a laugh. Cost is $10 per person. Supper is provided and there are some good prizes up for grabs. You can book a table of 8 through our Secretary, Laraine Brown, email secretary@sketchleycottage.org.au

Heritage Week

My Culture, My Story event being held at Sketchley Pioneer Cottage and Museum on Sunday 22nd April 10 am to 2.30 pm

A special day as part of the Australian Heritage Festival month. Come along and learn some stories of local families. A new display will be open featuring the Moxey family including a wedding dress previously in storage. There will be activities and old fashioned games for all ages including children. Light refreshments will be available. Dress up and join in, have fun and learn something new about our local heritage

More details on Heritage Week see link below. More details about our plans will come later.

* YOU CAN FOLLOW US ON FACEBOOK TO KEEP UP TO DATE WITH OUR EVENTS ****

Regular Events

Don't forget, monthly General meetings are held on 3rd Friday of each month in Senior Citizen's Hall, Irrawang Street, Raymond Terrace. 7 pm start.

We run a sausage sizzle at Dan Murphy's in Port Stephens Street, Raymond Terrace, on the 1st Saturday of the month. Can you help us by volunteering to man the stall??

Also, the Museum complex is open 10.00 am to 2 pm on 4th Sunday of each month, February to November. Entrance Fee is $5 adults, $3 children.

Please encourage friends and relatives to visit and support the Society.

Additionally, we need new members – please help us grow our numbers by inviting friends and family to join. Volunteers are a highly sought after commodity !!

FEATURED BUILDING

The “Richardson & Scully” building in King Street. Keep your eye on this site – changes are happening !
